

Center for Health & Learning

Formerly Green Mountain Training Center

28 Vernon Street, Suite 319, Brattleboro, VT 05301

phone (802) 254-6590

fax (802) 254-5816

www.healthandlearning.org

Center for Health and Learning Activities 2005

Public Grants/Contracts Project Title	Description of Activity	Population Served	Cooperating Agencies and Organizations
Alcohol, Tobacco and Other Drugs (ATOD) Education Grant #5555R6030501	Assisted the Act 51 Advisory Council and Department of Education Safe and Healthy Schools Team to develop high quality ATOD education for all school staff in Vermont. Developed three levels of training, trainer competencies and continuum, a menu of professional development options, maintained a cadre of five expert level trainers, coordinated ten two-day trainings and multiple on-site events that fulfilled the requirements of VT Act 51. Wrote and revised participant and trainer materials. Developed a reporting system for schools to track staff professional development.	267 educators and school staff trained through regional trainings; up to 150 staff trained through site-based trainings	Vermont Department of Education (VT DOE); Safe and Healthy Schools Team
Power of Choice Contract # 8075	Worked with Department of Education to implement the Power of Choice nutrition education curriculum published by the Food and Drug Administration in before and after-school and summer programs. Trained a statewide coordinator and regional trainers (June 2, 2005) to deliver programs in sites throughout VT.		VT DOE; Nutrition Education Program - Safe and Healthy Schools Team

Public Grants/Contracts-contd. Project Title	Description of Activity	Population Served	Cooperating Agencies and Organizations
Building Capacity for Coordinating School Health Initiatives Grant # 4249R6030503	Designed and implemented the Coordinated School Health Project. Trained two regional Coordinated School Health Consultants to work with a total of eight schools in northern and southern VT to create site-based School Health Advisory Councils (SHACs) composed of school staff, administrators, family and community members. The SHACs each developed action plans with short-term goals. Action projects focused on developing nutrition and food service programs, and after-school fitness promotion.	Seven school communities; Up to 500 children impacted	American Cancer Society Vermont DOE; Safe and Healthy Schools Team
Coordinated School Health and Health Education Curriculum and Assessment Grant # 4249R6030503	Served as fiscal agent and provided marketing for statewide meetings and the Health Education Curriculum and Assessment Summer Institute, an annual event focused on developing a health education cadre using the VT Guidelines for Health Education , and state and national assessment.	Up to 100 meeting participants; 9 participants in the Summer Institute	VT DOE
VT Department of Education HIV/AIDS Grant Grant# 4249R6030501	Coordinated three workshops on HIV prevention and prevention curricula.	48 participants	VT DOE; VT Department of Health
VT Department of Health, Division of Alcohol and Drug Abuse Prevention Grant #006025	Coordinated four full-day workshops on topics designed to build the capacity of community coalitions who purpose is to address alcohol, tobacco and other drug use in the community.	34 community leaders	VT DOH
Resident Education Assistance and Prevention Grant #	Coordinate the delivery of up to 65 one and one half hour workshops on a variety of prevention topics to 12 senior citizen centers geographically distributed throughout VT.	Approximately 150 senior citizens	Department of Health

Private Grants-contd. Project Title	Description of Activity	Population Served	Cooperating Agencies and Organizations
General Mills Foundation	Designed and offered training on the Media Literacy for Health curriculum to ten teachers in Windham Southeast Supervisory Union. Teachers implemented three curriculum modules in their classrooms, one of which included Alcohol, Tobacco and other Drugs.	10 teachers, 200 students during current year	Know Media
Johnson and Johnson Grant	Develop and offer a training to medical social work teams from five major hospitals in New England on the Healing Expressive Arts Loss Support curriculum and program to be implemented in their settings in the coming year.	To be offered in 2006	Johnson and Johnson Foundation; Center for the Arts in Healthcare
Mascoma Bank	Develop services brochure	General marketing	This was a matching grant
C&S Grocers 2K	Design and print marketing materials	General marketing	This was a matching in-kind donation

Independent Contracts Title	Description	# Served	Partnerships & Collaborations
Windham Southeast Supervisory Union (WSES)	Provide classroom support to K-12 teachers in the WSESU for the delivery of high quality standards and skills-based health education. Oversee the writing of a K-12 Health Curriculum Framework and assist in the development of a K-12 Social Development Curriculum Framework.	Up to 50 teachers and 150 students	Windham Southeast Supervisory Union
Windham Central Supervisory Union (WCSU)	Oversee coordination of school health initiatives in WCSU, including managing the Safe and Drug Free Schools and EPSDT funded activities, conducting staff development and offering K-12 classroom support activities to enable implementation of the Know Your Body curriculum and standards and skills-based health education.	Up to 150 teachers and 300 students	Windham Central Supervisory Union

Independent Contracts-contd. Title	Description	# Served	Partnerships & Collaborations
Relegent, Inc.	Develop a system of training to prepare teachers to use the HealthTeacher and HealthTeacher.com curricula. Developed trainer competencies and continuum, a menu of professional development offerings, objectives for trainer of trainers, training outlines for all professional development offerings. Researched and wrote content for the Nutrition, Alcohol and other Drugs, and Tobacco sections of the Teacher Background web-pages of the online curriculum. Piloted the offering of a HealthTeacher teacher preparation training. Designed and carried out the first annual Trainer of Trainer event in Burbank, CA to prepare Expert level trainers.	8 health education leaders Potentially thousands of online users and their students	Relegent, Inc.
Rocky Mountain Center	Organize a state-wide training to pilot the use of the Health Education Curriculum and Assessment Tool developed by the Rocky Mountain Center.	21 participants	Rocky Mountain Center; VT Department of Education

Fee-for-Service	Description	# Served
Know Your Body	Coordinated three full-day workshops	26 educators
Life Skills Training	Coordinated one workshop	5 educators
Puberty: The Wonder Years	Coordinated four workshops	86 educators
Brain Gym	Coordinated one workshop	8 participants
Dynamic PE	Coordinated one training	12 participants
PE Summer Institute	Coordinated the institute	54 participants
HE Cadre Summer Institute		8 participants
Suicide Prevention	One training	7 participants
Media Literacy and Media Literacy for Health	The September 2004 – January 2005 concluded. One additional media literacy workshop was held.	21 participants
Teenage Health Teaching Modules	Coordinated one workshop	2 participants